The Minister of Industry and Trade told us about the work on preparing the national export development project. "The Russian Export Centre (REC) is the basic organisation in charge of coordinating all these activities. A one-stop-shop of export volume development support has been established in our country," the Minister emphasised.

In 2016, the REC, RUSNANO and the Fund for Infrastructure and Educational Programs (FIEP) signed a cooperation agreement, under the auspices of which over 20 portfolio companies of RUSNANO Management Company LLC contacted the REC. The most in-demand services of the REC have been export financial backing (crediting and insurance), certification and exhibition activities.

The RUSNANO portfolio companies have been gradually increasing the export share in their nanotechnology supply volume. Thus, in 2016, it amounted to 18.2% of the supply volume, or RUB 53.7 bln; in 2017, it was 24.6%, or RUB 70.6 bln; and over the Q1 2018 it was 26.0%.

The most in-demand products on foreign markets include those of such portfolio companies as Monocrystal (the world artificial sapphire market leader), Russian Quartz (formerly known as Kyshtym Mining; provides high-purity crystal quartz for microelectronics and solar energy), Hevel (solar cell modules), JSC Novomet-Perm (electrical submersible pumps (ESP) for oil production), OCSiAl (single wall carbon nanotubes (SWCNTs)), OptoSense (infrared optic sensors for gas analysers).

RUSNANO Joint-Stock Company was founded in March 2011 through reorganization of state corporation Russian Corporation of Nanotechnologies.
